HENRIETTA SOUTHAM

Kris and Walt are two love birds who have gone back to roost in the very place they met a lifetime ago. The nest they wish to feather is perched on the wild shores of West Lake looking over one of Canada's miracles: Prince Edward County's Sandbanks.

It was their peripatic way back home and the Lawrence of Arabia landscape that brought on the concept idea.

I wished to lighten up the Scandi Hygge feel that permeated from the light wood floors and walls but had been weighed down by a bulky brown leather sofa set as well as let in the view by lowering the profile of the seating. This home needed to work year round where it would feel like a breezy beach house by summer and a golden retreat by winter. I also wished to incorporate their children's penchant for modern as an added enticement to come "home".

The furnishings play on nomadic textures and patterns and are as inviting as they are functional and unique. I sourced Canadian artistry as much as I could, shopping locally, fair trade, sustainable and recycled materials as well as wholly organic materials of cord, cotton , wool, leather, wood and rattan.

The result is mysterious, timeless, light filled and above all plush, just as an adventure should be.

Excerpt from "Ulysses" by Lord Tennyson

*"The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks:
The long day wanes: the slow moon climbs: the deep
Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'T is not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die. "*
